

Fairlight Nursing Home

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR NIGHT CARE WORKER

Position	Night care worker
Responsible to	<input type="text"/>
Purpose of Position
To provide or assist in wakeful night duty cover in the home To undertake specified domestic or other task that can be effectively carried out during the night hours To be responsible for resident's safety and wellbeing at night
Principal Responsibilities
Help with going to bed at night, provide help during the night as needed and in getting up in the morning – all in line with the resident's care plan Ensure that residents needs are met during the night in line with their care plan Provide all personal care and support needed to individual residents. Assist residents who need help, reassurance or comfort during the night Carry out regular checks of residents at intervals as agreed on a care plan and with due regard for resident's privacy Carry out regular checks on the building with special reference to fire protection (care homes) Answer emergency calls, assess the situation, deal with the resident seeking help or call upon the manager where needed. In the time available between attending to care users, carry out useful domestic tasks, which can be carried out safely and without disruption, eg ironing, mending, food and dining room preparation, tidying or cleaning, preparing drinks and snacks (as directed) Read and write reports for care plans and specific reasons such as accident or incident reports Take part in staff meetings, supervision and training activities as directed, including working towards a vocational qualification if required If new to care work, meeting care certificate standards Ensure familiarity with all the relevant policies, procedures and night time protocols, including safeguarding, fire safety, and other health and safety requirements Assist with the giving of medication (with training and assured competence to do so) Carry out other reasonable duties as may be required	